

ಶ್ರೀಶಾರದಾಭುಜಂಗಮ್

{॥ ಶ್ರೀಶಾರದಾಭುಜಂಗಮ್ ॥}

Composed by Shri Chandrashekhara Bharathi Swami of Shringeri.

INTRODUCTION:- These following verses are in praise of Sharada Devi, the presiding deity at the famous temple at Shringeri in Karnataka state. They were composed by Shri Chandrashekhara Bharathi Swami who adorned the Sharada Peetam as its 34th pontiff. He was a great scholar, and a spiritual Everest. The numerous devotees who visited Shringeri considered him to be an incarnation of the Sharada Devi. They used to unburden their woes and problems in his presence and seek his blessings for their relief. He was greatly moved by their sufferings which are the consequence of straying away from the path of dharma and their inability to seek the Lord's grace by praying to Him. To help them in this matter he composed many stotras (hymns). These hymns are couched in simple language so that everyone can recite them. This Sharada Bhujangam is one such hymn. Herein the saint identifies himself with a lay person who is suffering because he is burdened with many problems. So, he prays to the Sharada Devi to take pity on him and grant relief from the sufferings.

Sharada Devi:- The Goddess Sharadha Devi is generally worshipped as the goddess of learning and speech.

She is known by the popular name of Sarasvathi and as the wife of Brahma the god of creation. But, as in the case of all stotrams,

She is depicted here as the Supreme Being capable of giving the ultimate goal, the supreme bliss (mokSham). The upanishad says that the Supreme Being alone that appears in many forms like Brahma, Siva, Vishnu, Indra etc. ಸ ಬ್ರಹ್ಮ ಸ ಶಿವಸ್ಸ ಹರಿಸ್ತೇನ್ತ್ರ ಸ್ತೋಕ್ತರಃ ಪರಮಸ್ವರಾಟ್ || (Narayana suktam.)

Thus, Sarasvathi has these names in Her 108 namavali - ಸರ್ವದೇವಸ್ತುತಾ = She is worshipped by all gods, ಚತುರ್ವರ್ಗ - ಫಲಪ್ರದಾ = She will grant all the four goals and so on. The Mooka kavi says this in his Mookapanchasati (500 verses in praise of KamakShi) in the Arya Shatakam (40).

ಏಂದಶ್ಲೋಕಾ

This verse states that KamakShi alone is there as the wife of Brahma resident in His face, of Vishnu in His chest and Siva in lap on His left side. Another verse in the same century (78)

salutes Devi saying She is Sarasvathi and in that form She appears as the wife of Brahma, and also has the names Katyayani, Kali, Kamakoti Kala, Bharati, Bhairavi, Bhadhra, Shakini, Shambhavi, Shiva.

Lord Krishna says that He (the Supreme Being) alone appears as all deities. Any worship offered to any form and name goes to Him alone and He alone grants the wishes of the worshippers through that form. But such worshippers of these various forms do not realise the truth.

Possessed of that faith, he engages in the worship of that form and he obtains his desires that are indeed granted by Me alone.

Thus,

the Supreme being alone that is worshipped as Sharada Devi represents Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva is said in one of Her names in the 108 names (ನಾಮಾವಲಿಃ) as :

ಬ್ರಹ್ಮ-ವಿಷ್ಣು-ಶಿವಾತ್ಮಿಕಾ | The list of 108 names also have the names

ಶಾರದಾ, ರಮಾ, ಶಿವಾ-(ಶಿವಾಭೇದಾ ಶಿವಾ), ಚಣ್ಡಿಕಾ, ಚಾಮುಣ್ಡೀ, ವಾರಾಹೀ | She can be worshipped by all, though each one may have different desires, and She will fulfill all those desires.

The translation given is not exact, but general enough to convey the meaning of the verses. Some comments are also provided. The following abbreviations are used in the comments. 1- VS - Sri Vishnu Sahasranama with Sri Sankaracharya's commentary. 2 - LS -

Sri Lalita Sahasranamam with the commentary of Sri Bhaskararaya. 3 -

BG - Srimad Bhagavadgita with Sri Sankaracharya's commentary. 4 - BH - Srimad Bhagavatam. 5 - AS - Atmarpanastuti by Sri Appayya Dikshitar.

6 - SX - Sri Shivaparadha kShamapana stotram by Shri Shankaracharya.

7 - KU - Kathopanishad.

Now, let us go to the stotram proper. The poet prays that the wonderful form of Shri Sharada Devi, that is resplendent and radiates kindness should be present in his mind.

Meaning:- May the great fortune that shines by the name Sharada, which is soaked in compassion, is seated in the Sri Chakra installed the poet as "the great fortune that shines by the name Sharada"

- ಶಾರದಾಭಿಖ್ಯಾಭಾಗ್ಯಮ್ | The reason is that, as said earlier, it is the Supreme Being that is worshipped at Shringeri as Sharada. The scriptures say that the Supreme Being is beyond our senses. It is beyond sound, touch, form, smell etc. It is beyond words and thought also. ಅಶಬ್ದವಸ್ತು ಶರ್ಮರೂಪಮವ್ಯಯಂ ತಥಾರಸಂ ನಿತ್ಯಮಗನ್ಧವಚ್ಚ ಯತ್ | KU (1-3-15). The question, then is, how can one worship It or meditate on It? It seems to be an abstract concept and perhaps uninteresting also. To facilitate worship, It is said to be available in five forms. They are ಪರಂ, ವ್ಯೂಹಂ, ವಿಭವಂ, ಅನ್ತರ್ಯಾಮಿ, ಅರ್ಚಾ | The first two forms are available in places like Vaikunta or Kailasa and so are not accessible for us for worship. So also, the avatars or incarnations like that of Rama or Krishna are also not available to us today. We are not able to feel the antaryami or the godhead available as the divinity within us.

Very rarely, perhaps one in a few millions is able to curb the tendency of the mind to flow outwards and turn it to the God residing in our hearts. Yama, the Lord of death says this.

Realising the limitations of the people, God, who is the very embodiment of compassion, has made Himself available for worship in every form and in particular in consecrated images where His presence is invoked and worshipped with faith and reverence. This is in the form of archa or idols and images. They may be installed in homes or temples and worshipped. Krishna talks about worship of the Lord in the form of idols in His advice to Uddhava. (Book 11 of Bhagavatam) Rituals in worship are only an aid in keeping our mind focussed and serious. But the essence of the worship of the image is the intense feeling that God is presenting Himself in the image. Sage Naradha says (Bhakti sutra No.16) that deep involvement in performing puja to images etc., is a sign of devotion. ಪೂಜಾದಿಷ್ಟನುರಾಗ ಇತಿ ಪಾರಾಶರ್ಯಃ | Prahladha mentions devotion to be of nine types.

ಏndshlokab

We may note that ಅರ್ಚನಮ್ worshipping Him in images is given a high place in the above list.

Just as we can use a small electrical plug point in our house to tap all the power we want for our use, so also, a worshipper can use the small image he worships to draw all that he wants and also unlimited satisfaction from it. We have to put the switch ON for the power to flow from the plug point. Devotion is the switch that makes the image to yield the devotee's wishes. Such a puja is specially suited for the harried householders in these days when they may have only limited time for worship. Great acharyas and saints have worshipped the Lord in images. The list includes Sankaracharya, Ramanujacharya, Madhvacharya, Chaitanya, Meera and Ramakrishna. Saints in charge of various maths perform elaborate pujas to idols in their maths. These saints are spiritually much advanced themselves and need not do any puja for their own upliftment. But they do the pujas to inculcate upon the numerous people who come to visit them the need to perform pujas. To them the image is not an insentient figure but a living prescence. To the saint composer Thiagaraja, the Supreme Being as Rama was very much present in the idol he worshipped. He could not think of being away from Him even for a short while as Rama, the Prince of Ayodhya was resident in his house. So when he was invited by the king of Tanjore to come to Tanjore he declined the invitation saying service to his Rama was more important and gave him greater happiness than any amount of wealth. Similarly, the great acharya Vedanta Desika refused to leave Kanchipuram when he was invited to Vijayanagar. He said that the Lord Varadaraja in the temple was the greatest wealth one can have. A devotee offers flowers, leaves water and some food to the Lord in the image. What he can offer in his puja is naturally limited. And even these are really not his but given by the Lord only. The worshipper should be aware of this and pray to God to accept the meagre offering and bless him. A poor farmer who gets a chance to meet a great king may offer only some fruits and vegetables grown by him in his field; but the great ruler will accept them with grace and reward him. Likewise God graciously accepts what little a devotee offers. A seed sown in a good soil grows into a healthy plant and returns greatly augmented results to the cultivator. So also what is offered to Him, He gives back in abundance. God has said that if a devotee offers a Tulsi leaf, flower, fruit or even a little water with love and devotion He accepts the offering with great satisfaction.

ಏಂದshlokab

Thus the stress is on devotion. The kindly Lord accepts with pleasure even such small offerings being present in an idol. Just as the electricity flows out of the humble plug point in the house, God's grace flows out of the diminutive image worshipped in the house or temple. The Supreme Being is present in the idol. Sri Vedanta Desika says that Lord Srinivasa available to us at Tirupati is the Supreme Being extolled by the scriptures. ಶ್ರುತಿಶಿರಸಿ ವಿದೀಪ್ತೇ ಬ್ರಹ್ಮಣಿ ಶ್ರೀನಿವಸೇ ಭವತು ಮಮ ಪರಸ್ಮಿನ್ ಶೇಮುಷಿ ಭಕ್ತಿರೂಪಾ |. Thus the idols worshipped in the temples and by us in our own humble house is our interface with the Supreme Being. Is it not a sign of our immense luck, then, that the Supreme Being that can grant us our wishes and salvation too if we ask for it is available to us so easily? So it is that Sharada Devi is called by the poet as "the great fortune that shines by the name Sharada" - ಶಾರದಾಭಿಖ್ಯಾಭಾಗ್ಯಮ್ ।.

In the Narayaneeyam (verse No.1) also the poet Narayana Namboodri exclaims with wonder that the Supreme Being that cannot be directly described by the scriptures and which is the form of liberation itself shines at Guruvayoor (as the idol of Krishna) as the good fortune of the people.

One does not get the fortune to see and worship Shri Sharada at Shringeri unless he is immensely fortunate. Usually people are very interested to visit hill stations, beaches and similar places where they can relax and have some fun. The problem with such visits is that they will come to end in a few days or weeks and one is back from where one started (i.e) to one's regular routine. Thus such "pleasures" are short lived. The time, money and effort spent in such travels is better spent when we spend it in visiting holy places like Shringeri and see the shrine of Sharada Devi. Such a visit will wash off the sins. This fact is not understood because the results are not patent. That is why it is said that one should have done meritorious deeds (punyam) in innumerable births to have Her darshan. So She is known as ದುರ್ಗಮಾ (LS -189) = One who is difficult to attain. To have Her in our minds all the time is very difficult as our minds are replete with thoughts about ourselves and our family, friends, fortunes and problems. To make it to focus on God requires long and constant practice. In addition we will require God's grace also. This is said later on in this poem.

What greatly enhances the glory of the temple of Sharada is the fact that the icon of the Devi was installed by the none other than the great Sankaracharya himself. This fact is mentioned in the following verse from the Kamalajadayithashtakam (ಕಮಲಜದಯಿತಾಷ್ಟಕಮ್) composed in praise of the Devi by Shri Narasimha Bharati Swami, the 33rd pontiff of the peetam.

He worshipped You, who wear half the moon as an ornament, by several hymns. Please bless me quickly with wisdom and pure intellect. But, what all that is said above need not make one think that She is beyond reach and discourage him from worshipping Her. She is described here as ದಯಾದ್ರಾಫ | or dripping with compassion. She

He is showing us the way to pray.

of doing anyone of these one should surrender to Her. This is Even to do this one requires Her grace. As an example, we see that there are many people who reside near a temple. But we find that on any day, only a handful few are inclined to visit the temple and worship the Lord. What is preventing others from doing such a simple job that costs no money? The answer is they lack the Lord's grace.

Does this mean that God is capricious so that He showers His grace on chosen few and withholds it from others? No, His grace is available to all, but some are not receiving it because of their own deficiencies.
A person with vision clouded due to some disease of the eyes does not see objects lit by sun light clearly. This is not because of any fault of the light, but of the defect in his eyes only. Similarly, one whose mind is clouded with negative qualities such as selfishness, anger, avarice, jealousy cannot receive His grace though He is very much within everyone. The person with the diseased eyes can see properly after he gets rid of the malady by getting appropriate treatment from a qualified doctor. Similarly, a person with his mind sick with negative qualities should get rid of those qualities first. Then his mind cleansed of the impurities will be able to receive God's grace.

The devotee says he is distanced by Shiva and others (ಭವಾದ್ಯೈಃ ಸುದೂರಮ್ ವಿಸೃಷ್ಟಂ |)

The Lord is omnipresent, He is present everywhere. So, one can never be away from Him. This being so, how can the author say he is distanced by God? This may be explained by an example. Suppose one wants to listen to a particular program on his radio. But he is not receiving that program, but some other program. What does he do? He simply tunes his receiver to the correct station. He need not carry the receiver to any other place to hear the program because the radio waves are all over the place. Once it is properly tuned, he will hear the program immediately. In this way the program is very near to him. As long as the receiver is not properly tuned the program is not available and is as good as being far away. Thus, the program is both near and far away. Similarly, God is all over the place. Yet, he is near to some and far away for others. One has only to tune his mind to God to receive His grace. Tuning one's mind to God is done by devotion or bhakti. Devi is attained by devotion. So, She has the name ಭಕ್ತಿಗಮ್ಯಾ - ಭಕ್ತ್ಯಾ ಸಂರಾಧನೇನ ಗಮ್ಯಾ | LS(119).

The divine sage Naradha is well known as a great devotee of the Lord. He told Vyasa that he roams about the worlds singing Lord's glories. His mind is constantly tuned to Him. So The Lord readily reveals Himself in his mind as if summoned by him. BH(1-6-34).

Because of this we are not able to receive signals

He says that one, though he has a sharp mind, cannot reach to God if he has not given up evil conduct, or does not have a calm mind or if his senses are not under control.

The scriptures state that the qualities said by Yama are got by acquiring the four basic qualifications known as ಸಾಧನ ಚತುಷ್ಟಯ ಸಂಪತ್ತಿಃ । These are to be acquired by one who wants to take to the spiritual path. They are described in detail in texts like Viveka Chudamani. The text Tattvabodha defines them as follows. ಸಾಧನಚತುಷ್ಟಯಂ ಕಿಮ್? ನಿತ್ಯಾನಿತ್ಯವಸ್ತುವಿವೇಕಃ ।

ಇಹಾಮೃತಾರ್ಥಫಲಭೋಗವಿರಾಗಃ । ಶಮಾದಿಷಟ್ಕಸಂಪತ್ತಿಃ । ಮುಮುಕ್ಷುತ್ವಂ ಚೇತಿ । The capacity to discriminate between the permanent and the impermanent, dispassion to the enjoyment of the fruits of one's actions here in this world and hereafter (in the higher worlds like heaven), the six accomplishments (inner wealth) beginning with shama (ಶಮ)and the yearning for liberation. The details are available in this text and Viveka Chudamni. These four qualifications purge the mind of pollutants like anger, jealousy, avarice and bless the student with a keen razor sharp intellect that is capable of understanding the subtle teachings of spiritual texts imparted by the teacher. Having got a pure mind by the above said practices one will be able to tune his mind to God and receive His signals clearly and without disturbance. The devotion will be fruitful. Else the devotion cannot bring any result and God will be far away from him.

Acquiring these qualifications is a long and arduous process. This is said by the sage Patanjali in his Yogasutra. ಸೆ ತು ದೀರ್ಘಕಾಲ-ನೈರನ್ತರ್ಯ-ಸತ್ಕಾರಾಸೇವಿತೋ ದೃಢಭೂಮಿಃ ।(1-14).

The practitioner will face numerous obstacles, mainly from within. The mind is not used to any discipline. So, any attempt to discipline it will be firmly resisted. We have the stories of the sage Viswamitra who had to face serious impediments even when he repaired to forests to practise penance. One is advised to pray and seek God's help to surmount the obstacles. Krishna assures that He will help His devotee in this process. ಮಚ್ಚಿತ್ತಃ ಸರ್ವದುರ್ಗಾಣಿ ಮತ್ಪ್ರಸಾದಾತ್ ತರಿಷ್ಯಸಿ । BG(18-58).

Keeping this in mind, the poet surrenders to Devi, who is ready to help such disadvantaged people, for success in this endeavour.

declare that the human birth is very special as it is got after numerous births. Such a precious thing should not be frittered away in chasing petty and short lived pleasures. It should be used to attain the highest goal of life which is liberation or mokSha. And attaining liberation is possible only in human birth. However the human body is fragile as one does not know when death will cut short the life. So the wise one should not waste time but use his body and try for liberation in this life itself. Krishna gives this advice to

In view of this devotees have been telling themselves (by advising their limbs) to engage in the worship of the Lord. The devotee Kulasekhara asks his tongue to sing His glories, his mind to think of Him, His hands to engage themselves in worshipping Him, his ears to listen to listen to His stories, his eyes to see Him, his legs to visit His temples, his nose to smell the tulasi leaves used in His worship and his head to bow to Him. Shri Shankaracharya goes one stage earlier (i.e.) babyhood. He says that as a baby, he was interested in only feeding from his mother and was helpless to protect himself even from tiny insects that bit and harrassed him. In addition he had no control over his sense organs like the mind and limbs and so was he was steeped in ignorance. He was also a victim of many diseases and was crying. So, where is the question of thinking of the Lord? He begs the Lord to pardon his mistake. SX(2).

Shri Sankaracharya makes a similar request in Sivanandalahari. (41). He

The Acharya prays in the last line that the Lord should repeatedly make his mind engage in His worship. ತನ್ನಿರೂಪಯ ಮುಹುಃ | Why say "repeatedly"? The reason is that our mind is and had been attached to the attractions of the world for many births. Even if the kindly Lord extends His hand for us to hold and we also grasp it, we will not be able to retain our hold for long. The pull of these attractions is very strong and will tear away our mind back to ourselves, our family, possessions etc. We have to be alert and watch the situation. The moment we feel our hold on the Lord is weakening, we have to renew our effort and tighten the grip. This effort is thus to be done repeatedly till we find that our hold is firm and no more weakening. It is for this reason that the devotee Dhruva also prayed to the Lord that his mind should repeatedly seek the company of holy men. BH(4-9-11).

heart is full of sorrow, the sorrow will surely affect Devi also who is residing in his heart. No doubt Devi is the embodiment of bliss. Yet, because of Her association with one who is intensely suffering, She too will get a share of the suffering. Also since She is all pervading, She cannot also get away from the author's heart to some other clean place. Because of this reason, the author points out that She has to alleviate the distress of the author if She wants to escape any suffering.

The scripture say that Ignorance about the true nature of the Self is the cause of all the sufferings one goes through. So, the poet now prays to Devi to remove the nescience.

Still, my ignorance is not removed. O Mother! You have to dispel the ignorance that is the root of all sorrows.

Note:-

Our scriptures state that through God's grace alone one gets a desire for the supreme wisdom referred to above arises. For example, the Avadhuta Gita says - ಈಶ್ವರಾನುಗ್ರಹಾದೇವ ಪುಂಸಾಮದ್ವೈ ತವಾಸನಾ | ಮಹದ್ಭಯಪರಿತ್ರಾಣಾದ್ವಿಪ್ರಾಣಾಮುಪಜಾಯತೇ || \

This grace of God has to be combined with one's own effort which is a must. Sarasvathi has the name ಬ್ರಹ್ಮಜ್ಞಾನೈಕಸಾಧನಾ = The only means of getting the wisdom that reveals the supreme being. So the poet prays to Devi for Her grace to gain the wisdom. The Lord had said that He will, out of compassion, remove the ignorance of His devotees and by granting them the supreme wisdom. that devotion to Her brings about in a person and also the benefits of devotion.

This leads to loss of peace of mind, restlessness, and unhappiness . An example is given by our texts to explain this phenomenon. A sparrow lands on a dressing table. It looks into the mirror and sees its own image. It mistakes the reflection to be another sparrow, its rival, and attacks it. In the same way, the same Supreme Being is resident in everything in the universe. Only, the forms are different. Meaning:-Those who worship You for getting their serious disease cured and similarly for getting rid of their poverty become possessors of tridents and dressed in the hide of elephant. O Mother! is it proper on Your part to conduct Yourself in this manner with those who surrender to You?

Note: - The serious disease is samsara or having to be born and die endlessly. By saying that the worshippers come to hold a trident and be dressed in the hide of an elephant indicates they get the form of Siva. Siva holds a trident and wears the hide of an elephant. Devi and Siva are one. This was pointed out earlier. ಶಿವಾ = ಶಿವಾಭೇದಾ ಶಿವಾ | She is not different from Siva, so Devi has the name Siva. LS(53). The devotees become one like Devi. This is known as ಸಾರೂಪ್ಯಮ್ or similar form and is one form of liberation.

Meaning:- In the same manner, people who see those who surrender to You to control delusion definitely get deluded. O Sharada! my mind is filled with wonder.

Note: - Delusion is the result of ignorance about the true nature of one's Self. Those who pray to Devi gets his delusion removed. But those who come close to him become themselves deluded, meaning charmed by him because of his greatness got as a result of Devi's grace. The popular hymn Shyamala Dandakam also says this . ಯೇನ ವಾ ಯಾವಕಾಭಾಕೃತಿರ್ಭಾವ್ಯಸೇ, ತಸ್ಯ ವಶ್ಯಾ ಭವಂತಿ\ ಸ್ತ್ರಿಯಃ ಪುರುಷಾಃ | Men and women will come under the control of the one who meditates on Your shining complexion, possessing the hue of the red lac.

Meaning:- Those who meditate on You all the time as one having the complexion that is far superior to well polished gold, and with chest shining with chain that shines like a garland of stars become themselves Manmatha (cupid) with their outstanding beauty.

Note:-

By worshipping Devi one gets an exceedingly attractive form. Sharada Devi has an exceedingly beautiful form. She has the name ಚಾರುರೂಪಾ - ಚಾರು ಸುಂದರಂ ರೂಪಂ ಲಾವಣ್ಯಂ ಯಸ್ಯಾಃ | LS(241). By intensely meditating on Her the devotee gets an attractive form. This is like the case of an iron ball dropped in the fire. After some time the ball imbibes all the qualities of the fire. It also glows and looks like a ball of fire. A devotee is drawn close to Her and imbibes Her qualities and gets a beautiful form. Next, the poet describes in the next four verses the state of mind of those who worship Devi.

This verse describes the form of Sharada Devi that is suitable for meditation. Being able to think of Her all the time will be the summum bonum of life. By meditating on Her in Her form as said here one will be relieved of his/her sorrows. She has the name ದುಃಖಹನ್ತೀ - ದುಃಖಸ್ಯ\ that by meditating on Devi one can get rid of his sorrows, the poet proceeds to say that one will also be blessed with infinite bliss.

gives in abundance happiness, be it relate to this world or the other world and also the supreme bliss known as liberation. So, Her devotee will be full of joy. The poet Bhartrihari expresses a similar desire. He wants to reside on the banks of the sacred river Ganga, clad in a strip of cloth and with folded hands raised over his head keep loudly repeating the Lord Siva's names and pray for His mercy.

I too have come to be holding a rosary in my hand. But, I pray to You to make my mind to hold on firmly to You.

Note: It is a popular notion that the wasp confines the worm that has come out of its egg in a nest. It visits the nest frequently and stings the helpless worm. The worm is thus tormented and keeps thinking of the tormentor, the wasp, constantly in fear, with the result it metamorphoses itself into a wasp. In the same way, the poet says that by constantly thinking of Sharada Devi, he too have got himself transformed into Her. The Avadhuta sage says this to King Yadhu in avadhuta Gita. BH(11-14-22 and 23).

Note:- Our scriptures say that the human life is very precious, but is fragile. Every available moment should be used in thinking of God or hearing about Him so that our sins get washed away and we may escape the hands of Death. Sri Bhagavatam says that only the time spent in this manner is time lived well.

What about the large majority of people who cannot do so? Their mind is still occupied with attachment to their family, friends, assets etc. and because of this they are not able to spend much time in thinking of God. Arjuna's was such a case. He was torn between love for his kith and kin and to his sense of duty. His mind was not fully mature for devotion to the exclusion of all other attachments. To him Krishna said that he should carry on performing his duties and also remember the Lord. With the mind so fixed on Him, he will progress spiritually and in course of time reach Him.
